Joe has considerable experience in representing clients before the First Tier Tribunal, the Upper Tribunal, the High Court and the Court of Appeal and has recently been appointed as a Fee Paid First Tier Tribunal Judge of the Immigration and Asylum Chamber.

Joe is a dynamic and fearless advocate who is always well prepared. He has extensive experience representing vulnerable clients in asylum and immigration matters, both in appeals and judicial review claims, and his calm and friendly manner always inspires confidence in those he represents.

Joe has practiced crime to a high level although he now practices almost exclusively in immigration law. He has appeared on Sky News as commentator on immigration law. He is regularly invited to speak at seminars and conferences and recently spoke at the ILPA conference on EU Law and the Law Friends Conference on Tribunal Advocacy. In 2018 he was twice invited to lecture on advocacy in Lahore.
