Victoria practices exclusively in family law. She is known to be a skilful and effective advocate, extremely thorough and always well prepared. She is approachable and friendly with clients, but will always fight hard to achieve the best possible result for them.

Victoria is also a family mediator and the co-author of the England and Wales chapter in The Variegated Landscape of Mediation: a Comparative Study of Mediation Regulation and Practices in Europe and the World (Manon Schonewille and Dr Fred Schonewille [eds.], The Hague, Eleven International Publishing 2014).

Family

Victoria practises principally in financial remedy and private law children cases, including cases with international elements and those involving significant factual and legal complexity.

Notable Cases

- B v T (2015): obtained extensive contact for a parent in circumstances where the child's medical condition and numerous allegations were being cited as reasons for there being no contact at all.
- L v L (2011): matrimonial finance case with conduct issues and an international element. Won 100% of the assets for the client.
- S v S & M (2009): obtained a declaration of parentage for the mother where the father had died before the child was born, and his family did not know of the mother's existence.
- Re B (Residence Order) [2007] All ER (D) 280 (Feb) FD (Hogg J): successfully opposed the father's appeal against the making of a residence order.
